

Littleover 100

Heritage Trail

16: The Hollow

One of the most picturesque parts of the village, and was once the main road from the south. Here is our most ancient building (aside from St Peter's), one of the last remaining original thatched cottages in this part of Derbyshire. Though through the years it has had a tiled, tin AND thatched roof. It probably began life as a labourers cottage on the Harpur Estate during the 16th century.

www.stpeterlittleover.org.uk/heritagetrail